Atal Bhujal Yojana is not only inspiring and motivating ABY farmers of the state, but it is also aspiring many young entrepreneurs and providing them a platform to choose Agriculture as their primary source of income. One such young farmer Mr. Archit Singhal of Gram Panchayat Teekli, District Gurugram used the information provided by the Atal Bhujal Haryana Team and commenced production of strawberry in 6.6 acre of land in his village. He was provided with financial assistance in Drip installation from Atal Bhujal Yojana Haryana.

Mr. Archit Singhal's work is not only appreciated by the ABY team but it also acts as a catalytic agent for the other farmers in the region. He also provided guidance to the farmers of his Gram Panchayat and adjoining areas. Due to his guidance and continuous good efforts have turned the whole area into a hub with strawberry cultivation area reached to 30 acre and it is continuously increasing year by year. Definitely this success story will set an example for others in the field of Behavior Change for diversifying the cropping pattern in the state of Haryana. Atal Bhujal Yojana is continuously making such efforts with its leadership and experts available for the purpose.
